Hall of Fame

The Pinto Horse Association believes in honoring outstanding individuals that have impacted the past, present and future of the Pinto breed and the association that is dedicated to preserving and promoting it. Therefore, PtHA takes great pride in its Hall of Fame program which now includes ten separate categories: 6 of which are open nominations. Any PtHA member is welcome to submit a nomination for Judge, Professional Horseman/Horsewoman, Individual, Amateur Master, or Inspirational Woman for Hall of Fame status. Nominations will be accepted yearly and must be postmarked by September 1st. If nominees are not selected for induction, they will remain on the selection ballot for two additional years after the first nomination. If, after three years, the nominee still has not been selected for induction, they will be removed from the ballot and will not be eligible for nomination for three years.

Listed below are the criteria for these Hall of Fame categories.
